FIRST EDITION

3 O'Clock.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

THE WILLIAMS CASE.

[Special to the Sentinel.]

Youngstown, O., June 10, 2 p. m.—Mrs. Williams who was shot by her husband on Sunday, is still alive and there is a posibility of her recovery. Williams is still at large.

CHEATED THE HANGMAN.

Philadelphia, June 10. — Edward Parr, the murderer of his daughter, who sank down in the prisoner's dock yesterday from the effects of poison, just after the death sentence had been pronounced on him, died this morning at 10 minutes before 6 o'clock, in the ante-room of the court room. Eminent physicians from different colleges were with him all night, but failed to restore him to consciousness. All Parr's immediate relatives are in custody and a rigid investigation will be had with a view to discover the manner in which and by whom the poison was conveyed to the prisoner.

A BIG GANG.

Buffalo, June 10.—Another gang of eight young desperadoes have been arrested, who confess to being part of an organized gang, operating in several cities as well as Buffalo. They confess to over a hundred burglaries.

WASHINGTON.

KELLOGG AND SPOFFORD.

Washington, June 10.—The committee on privileges and elections of the senate continued the Spofford case to-day. Senator Kellogg and Judge Spofford were present. No witnesses were examined, none being at hand. It is expected that all the testimony will be in at the end of this week or the first of next. The affidavits heretofore offered in evidence were admitted to record. An effort to deprive Sauvignes of his witness fees failed on the ground that he was obliged to answer subpœnas.

Adjourned.

Congressional.

SENATE.

Washington, June 10.—A bill was reported by Voorhees from the committee on finance for the relief of James W. Harrison, assistant assessor of the Indiana district, providing for the payment to him of the salary of the assessor for two years during which he performed the duties of assessor, while a vacancy in that office existed by reason of refusing to confirm the nomination.

Voorhees supported the bill.

Conkling opposed it as establishing a precedent for many similar cases.

HOUSE.

Washington, June 10.—Morrison, from the committee on ways and means, reported a resolution providing for the final adjournment of congress at noon the 17th of June; adopted.

BLOODY TIMES.

A Mutiny of Mexican Troops Who Cross the River.

Galveston, June 9.—A News Eagle Pass special says early yesterday morning a company of Mexican infantry at Pietras Negras mutinied and fought their way through the guard at the gate. About fifteen crossed to this side under a heavy fire from loyal troops, who continued firing after the deserters landed, many balls striking the houses in the place. The fugitives surrendered their arms to citizens to be returned to Mexico. A number of mutineers were killed on the Mexican side.

The cause of the desertion is that the troops have been six months without pay and nothing to eat.

Yesterday evening the Mexican troops marched outside of the city with two captured mutineers whom they were going to shoot, but a strong protest from the citizens caused the execution to be abandoned.

Sunday School Congress.

[Special to the Sentinel.]

Rome City, June 10.—Rome City is a tented village. The Sunday school congress opened with an immense number of people in attendance. The weather is fine, and prospects splendid. There are forty small tents on the island and a pavilion that holds 800 people. Trains leave the south depot at Fort Wayne at 9 a. m., and return at 7 p. m.

Marine.

London, June 10.—Steamships Mass and Victoria, from New York, arrived out.

Moville, June 10.—Arrived, steamship Ethiopia, from New York.

Meteorological.

Washington, June 10.—Indications: For Tennessee and Ohio valley, falling followed by rising barometer, variable winds, mostly from southeast to southwest, warmer followed by slightly cooler and partly cloudy weather, and local rains. For lower lake region, falling followed by rising barometer, southerly to westerly winds, followed by slightly cooler and partly cloudy weather.

From Yesterday's Second Edition.

WASHINGTON.

KELLOGG-SPOFFORD.

Washington, June 9.—The committee on privileges and elections to-day resumed investigation of the Kellogg-Spofford case, and recalled Thomas Murray, colored.

By Mr. Merrick—Question: On Saturday you stated you had not been promised money, but you told De Lacy you could make $2,500. I forgot to ask you how you were going to make the money?

A—By coming here to tell the truth and make a reputation with my people. It would be worth $2,500 to have good people of my community with me.

DeLacy was re-called and questioned about the signature to his affidavit, and the committee compared the signature to the affidavit to the name written on the separate piece of paper Saturday, but conclusions differed.

Mr. Merrick then offered in evidence DeLacey's affidavit to abide the disposition of the other affidavits.

The sergeant-at-arms said eight witnesses on each side had been subpœnaed.

The chairman suggested that the examination be limited to that number as it might be considered proper to send a committee to New Orleans to examine witnesses in order to save expenses.

Jules Sevegnes, a member of the Packard legislature in 1877, and present in the joint convention that elected Kellogg, was examined.

Merrick exhibited the affidavit of witness, who said he wrote it and it bore his signature. The affidavit was read, stating that witness was not present in the legislature in January, 1877, when Kellogg was elected for the long term, but voted for him the next day.

Merrick—Is that paper true?

Ans—It is not true. The very parties who induced me to make the affidavit knew it to be a lie.

Merrick—I insist on knowing their names.

Witness—I won't tell all their names.

After a good deal of badgering, witness mentioned the names of Cavanac, Dronett, Murray and Elder. Witness wrote the affidavit himself, but those men told him there was "sugar" in it and he could have everything he wanted.

A motion to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution for an investigation in regard to the construction of public buildings was defeated—yeas 115, nays 82—not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative.

Mr. Atkins reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which was passed under suspension of the rules.

CRIME and CASUALTY.

TO BE HANGED.

Philadelphia, June 9.—Edward Parr, was sentenced to death to-day at noon for the murder of his daughter Susan Irwin. As the prisoner was leaving the dock he fell fainting to the floor and a phial dropped from his hand. It was then found that he had taken a dose of strychnine. He is still alive.

KANSAS PACIFIC RAIL'Y

LANDS! LANDS!

KANSAS TO THE FRONT!

The Leading Wheat State in the Union in 1878, and the Fourth Corn State—The Great Kansas Harvest in 1878 was Solid for the "Golden Belt."

The celebrated Grain Belt to country, in the limestone section of Central Kansas, traversed by the Kansas Pacific.

The following statement are taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878:

WHEAT! Kansas rises from the Eleventh Wheat State in 1877 to the First Wheat State in the Union in 1878, producing 28,518,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,796,403 bushels spring wheat; total,

32,315,361

Bushels Wheat, with only one-eighth of the state under cultivation. The organized counties lying in the Golden Wheat Belt of the Kansas Pacific produced 13,335,324 bushels, or over 41 percent, and, including unreporting counties, fully 14,000,000 bushels, or 45 percent of the entire yield of wheat in the state, averaging 24 bushels to the acre, while the average for the state was 17 bushels per acre.

CORN! Kansas, the Fourth Corn State in the Union, in 1878, produced 89,324,971 bushels of Corn. Of which the Golden Grain Belt counties produced 27,399,055 bushels, or 31 percent, nearly one-third of the entire yield of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.

The foregoing facts show conclusively why

29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years; and 40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year; and
43 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."

A Farm for Everybody.—65,000,000 farms—6,000,000 acres - for sale by the Kansas Pacific—the best land in America, at from $2 to $6 per acre, one-quarter off for cash, or on 6 or 11 years credit at 7 percent interest. It don't take much money to buy a farm on the Kansas Pacific; $26 to $80 will secure 80 acres on credit, or $120 to $360 in cash will buy it outright.

Send to S. J. Gilmore, Land Commissioner, Salina, Kas., for the "Kansas Pacific Homestead," a publication which tells about Lands, Homesteads, Pre-emption, Soil, Climate, Products, Stock Raising, Schools, Wages, Land Explorers' Tickets, Rates, etc. It is mailed free to all applicants.

CHEATED THE HANGMAN.

Philadelphia, June 10.—Edward Parr, the murderer of his daughter, who sank down in the prisoner's dock yesterday from the effects of poison, just after the death sentence had been pronounced on him, died this morning at 10 minutes before 6 o'clock, in the ante-room of the court room. Eminent physicians from different colleges were with him all night, but failed to restore him to consciousness. All Parr's immediate relatives are in custody and a rigid investigation will be had with a view to discover the manner in which and by whom the poison was conveyed to the prisoner.

A BIG GANG.

KELLOGG AND SPOFFORD.

Washington, June 10.—The committee on privileges and elections of the senate continued the Spofford case to-day. Senator Kellogg and Judge Spofford were present No witnesses were examined, none being at hand. It is expected that all the testimony will be in at the end of this week or the first of next. The affidavits heretofore offered in evidence were admitted to record. An effort to deprive Sawvignes of his witness fees failed on the ground that he was obliged to answer subpœnas. Adjourned.

Congressional.

SENATE.

Washington, June 10.—A bill was reported by Voorhees from the committee on finance for the relief of James W. Harrison, assistant assessor of the Indiana district, providing for the payment to him of the salary of the assessor for two years during which he performed the duties of assessor, while a vacancy in that office existed by reason of refusing to confirm the nomination.

Voorhees suppoqted the bill.

Conkling opposed it as establishing a precedent for many similar cases.

HOUSE.

Washington, June 10.—Morrison, from the committee on ways and means, reported a resolution providing for the final adjournment of congress at noon the 17th of June; adopted.

BLOODY TIMES.

A Mutiny of Mexican Troops Who Cross the River.

Galveston, June 9.—A News Eagle Pass special says early yesterday morning a company of Mexican infantry at Pietras Negras mutinied and fought their way through the guard at the gate. About fifteen crossed to this side under a heavy fire from loyal troops, who continued firing after the deserters landed, many balls striking the houses in the place. The fugitives surrendered their arms to citizens to be returned to Mexico. A number of mutineers were killed on the Mexican side.

The cause of the desertion is that the troops have been six months without pay and nothing to eat.

Yesterday evening the Mexican troops marched outside of the city with two captured mutineers whom they were going to shoot, but a strong protest from the citizens caused the execution to be abandoned.

From Yesterday's Second Edition.

WASHINGTON.

KELLOGG-SPOFFORD.

Washington, June 9.—The committee on privileges and elections to-day resumed investigation of the Kellogg-Spofford case, and recalled Thomas Murray, colored.

By Mr. Merrick—Qestion: On Saturday you stated you had not been promised money, but you told De Lacy you could make $2,500. I forgot to ask you how you were going to make the money?

A—By coming here to tell the truth and make a reputation with my people. It would be worth $2,500 to have good people of my community with me.

DeLacy was re-called and questioned about the signature to his affidavit, and the committee compared the signature to the affidavit to the name written on the separate piece of paper Saturday, but conclusions differed.

Mr. Merrick then offered in evidence DeLacey's affidavit to abide the disposition of the other affidavits.

The sergeant-at-arms said eight witneses on each side had been subpœnaed.

The chairman suggested that the examination be limited to that number as it might be considered proper to send a committee to New Orleans to examine witnesses in order to save expenses.

Jules Seveignes, a member of the Packard legislature in 1877, and present in the joint convention that elected Kellogg, was examined.

Merrick exhibited the affidavit of witness, who said he wrote it and it bore his signature. The affidavit was read, stating that witness was not present in the legislature in January, 1877, when Kellogg was elected for the long term, but voted for him the next day.

Merrick—Is that paper true?

Ans.—It is not true. The very parties who induced me to make the affidavit knew it to be a lie.

Merrick—I insist on knowing their names.

Witness—I won't tell all their names.

After a good deal of badgering, witness mentioned the names of Cavanac, Dronett, Murray and Elder. Witness wrote the affidavit himself, but those men told him there was "sugar" in it and he could have everything he wanted.

A motion to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution for an investigation in regard to the construction of public buildings was defeated—yeas 115, nays 82—not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative.

Mr. Atkins reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which was passed under suspension of the rules.

CRIME and CASUALTY.

TO BE HANGED.

Philadelphia, June 9.—Edward Parr, was sentenced to death to-day at noon for the murder of his daughter Susan Irwin. As the prisoner was leaving the dock he fell fainting to the floor and a phial dropped from his hand. It was then found that he had taken a dose of strychnine. He is still alive.

KANSAS PACIFIC RAIL'Y

LANDS! LANDS!

KANSAS TO THE FRONT!

The Leading Wheat State in the Union in 1878, and the Fourth Corn State—The Great Kansas Harvest in 1878 was Solid for the "Golden Belt."

The celebrated Grain Belt fo country, in the limestone section of Central Kansas, traversed by the Kansas Pacific.

The following statement are taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878:

WHEAT! Kansas rises from the Eleventh Wheat State in 1877 to the First Wheat State in the Union in 1878, producing 26,518,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,796,403 bushels spring wheat; total,

32,315,361

Bushels Wheat, with only one-eighth of the state under cultivation. The organized counties lying in the Golden Wheat Belt of the Kansas Pacific produced 13,335,324 bushels, or over 41 percent, and, including unreporting counties, fully 14,000,000 bushels, or 45 percent of the entire yield of wheat in the state, averaging 24 bushels to the acre, while the average for the state was 17 bushels per acre.

CORN! Kansas, the Fourth Corn State in the Uninon, in 1878, produced 89,324,971 bushels of Corn. Of which the Golden Grain Belt counties produced 27,399,055 bushels, or 31 percent, nearly one-third of the entire yield of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.

The foregoing facts show conclusively why

29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years; and
40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year; and
43 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."

A Farm for Everybody.—65,000,000 farms—5,000,000 acres for sale by the Kansas Pacific—the best land in America, at from $2 to $6 per acre, one-quarter off for cash, or on 6 or 11 years credit at 7 percent interest. It don't take much money to buy a farm on the Kansas Pacific; $26 to $80 will secure 80 acres on credit, or $120 to $360 in cash will buy it outright.

THE "SENTINEL"

Has the Largest Bona Fide Circulation of Any Daily Paper in the State, outside of Indianapolis. Advertisers and Others are Invited to Call at this Office and Verify this Assertion.

Congressional Summary.

Monday, June 9.—SENATE.—The resolution to postpone the finance committee from further consideration of the Warner silver bill was laid over till to-morrow. The McDonald bill authorizing the employment of military and land and naval forces of the United States in certain cases, was taken up, and Mr. Harris spoke in support of it. HOUSE.—The appropriation committee reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill which was recommitted last week. The bill was passed. The chair appointed the following committee on the proposed impeachment of Geo. F. Seward, minister to China: Messrs. New, House, Ryan, McKinley and Williams.

THE SENTINEL has the largest circulation.

IT is stated, with much plausibility, that HAYES is laying the wires for a renomination. Of course he pledged himself to one term only, but a man who would take the presidency under the circumstances that he did, can have little regard for his pledge.

WE can assure the public that the SENTINEL has by far the largest circulation of any daily paper in the state, published outside of Indianapolis. Any one who doubts this assertion can be abundantly satisfied by calling at this office, where every facility will be afforded to advertisers and others for a thorough investigation into the facts.

CONGRESSMAN MORRISON, of Illinois, is strongly in favor of the restoration of the income tax, the proceeds to be applied to the sinking fund for the extinguishment of the public debt. There are manifold objections to this mode of taxation, as there are to every method of raising revenue yet devised by the wit of man; but for all that the income tax has many advantages. It places the burden of taxation upon those who are best able to pay it, although in many instances these parties shift the burden to other shoulders. We believe the country would be well satisfied with an income tax which would exempt all incomes of $2,000 and under. There are some difficulties in the collection of such a tax, but they have been obviated in England, and probably could be, to some extent, in this country.

THE QUININE ROBBERY.

WE have been at some pains to get from our leading druggists an estimate of the quantity of quinine used in this county per annum; and as near as can be ascertained it is 12,500 ounces. The manufacture of quinine is one of the industries that the government assumes to protect, and for this purpose its importation is practically prohibited by placing on the imported article a duty of 20 per cent of its value. This duty averages 80 cents per ounce. If the 12,500 ounces of quinine consumed in this county each year were imported, the resources of the government would be increased $10,000, and there would be some excuse for the tax; but as every ounce of quinine used in this country is manufactured by Powers & Weightman and Rosengarten & Sons of Philadelphia, the only thing accomplished by the tax is to give them an advantage of 80 cents per ounce over foreign competitors. The tax takes from the people of this county yearly $10,000 for the benefit of these two firms.

Among the many manufacturing establishments in this city, the BASS Foundry & Machine Works and N. G. OLDS & SONS' probably contribute more to its material wealth than any others, yet if the proposition was presented to the people of Allen county to appropriate from the county treasury $5,000 per year to each of them for their support and maintainance, it would be rejected by a vote of ten to one, as it should be. Wrong and unjust as it would be to tax the people of this county that the wealth of Mr. BASS and Mr. OLDS, our home manufacturers, might be increased, how much greater is the wrong when they are forced to contribute to the wealth of Philadelphia manufacturers? The quinine tax is an outrage that congress should be compelled to repeal by an indignant public sentiment; yet it is only one of the many wrongs forced upon the people by congress under the pretence of protecting home industries. It is time for the people of this country to insist on placing all industries on the same level and to protest against the taxing of one industry for the benefit of another. That the people of the United States have submitted so long to the outrages perpetrated under the name of protection is, indeed, marvelous.

Mrs. George Rose sues the city of Lafayette for $20,000 for injuries received on the streets of said city last winter by being run into by a coasting sled, injuring her spine. The city claims that it is not liable.

One of Warren Tate's attorneys has stated that he knows of $35,000 expended by his client in defending the indictment for the murder of Wm. Love. How much more may have been spent without the knowledge of the attorneys, there is of course no means of telling.

Monticello is wild over the disappearance of N. R. McKee, a jeweler, on last Sunday. The principal conundrums are: Is he dead? Is he insane? Or has he absconded? Some curious developments are being made, but they may have been occasioned by either of the above alternatives.

A gang of thieves, believed to be a home production, went through various places in Shelby county, this state, last Monday night stealing horses, goods and money. They were in most cases frightened away without taking their plunder, but some goods and money are missing.—Bluffton Banner.

A German living in Lancaster township, Wells county, struck his wife, a weak, sickly woman, with such force as to break one of her ribs, simply because she was unable to go with him into the fields to assist him in his farm duties.

A shooting affray, which will probably prove fatal, occurred Wednesday night at Sullivan. Isaac Draper, suspecting his wife of having improper relations with Wm. McCrary, watched the pair one night and found them walking in the streets in a very loving manner. He was very much infuriated and ran up and opened fire upon McCrary. Nine shots were exchanged, one penetrating McCrary's left breast, near the heart. The two men then fought with clubbed pistols till McCrary fell from loss of blood. He is continually spitting blood, and will, no doubt, die.

Col Ellsworth was the first officer of distinction killed on either side in 1861. The first union officer killed in action was Lieut. Grebel of the regulars, who commanded the artillery at Little Bethel, June 10, 1861. Ellsworth was shot May 24th, but not in action.

Fostoria (O.) Review: L. E. & L. Ry.—The negotiations for the sale of L. Sixty Miles an Hour.
[Kansas City Times.]

Not long since it was announced by the managers of the Chicago and Alton Railroad that they would open up with the finest trains that ever entered Kansas City, or any other, for that matter, and that they have more than made good their word will be acknowledged by all who have inspected the beautiful "palaces on wheels" which have been rolling into and out of the union depot over the tracks of the new road. To the casual observer who has gazed upon the outside of these trains, or the traveler who has ridden over it to Chicago or St. Louis, it would seem that the acme of comfort, elegance and perfection in everything had been attained; but still the restless spirit of the company does not stop with what they have accomplished. They wish to place themselves in a position to enhance their capacity for making fast time if it becomes necessary to do so. Looking to this end, the Chicago and Alton made a contract some time ago with the Schenectady Locomotive Works for several powerful and swift engines for special service on the Kansas City end of the line.

An idea of the strength and speed which are combined in these "iron horses" may be imagined when it is understood that the contract provides that these engines will haul a train equal in weight to ten of Pullman's heaviest sleeping coaches (each one of which is about as heavy as two ordinary coaches), at any rate of speed required up to sixty miles an hour. The makers of these engines were furnished with exact information as to the grades and track over which they were to perform the service, and the contract is void if they do not fill the bill in every particular. The cylinders are 18x24 inches, driving wheels five feet nine and a half inches, and immense boiler capacity. In height they stand about a foot and a half over any engine that has heretofore run into this city. The Alton people recognize in Kansas City a great and growing business center, and while they expect to largely increase their own receipts by coming here, they are proving by their acts that they intend to give the public the worth of their money. The enterprise and energy which is being displayed by the Chicago and Alton fairly sustains their brilliant prestige and justifies the best expectations of Kansas City, and is an assurance that both will go on hand in hand to prosperity and a glorious future.

OUR DAILY FOOD.

Adulteration prevails in our daily food. Food is a most important necessity, and it should be wholesome and nutritious. If all articles that are used were as pure and healthful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, we should escape many of the ills of life.

Last Night's Dispatches.

The North German Gazette publishes the text of Germany's protest against the decree of the khedive of April 22. The protest says the decree is in direct violation of international obligations. Germany must decline to consider it binding, and holds the khedive responsible for all the consequences of his illegal proceedings.

The pope has appointed Cardinal Hergenroethert keeper of the archives of the holy see.

St. Louis, May 9.—A Topeka (Kas.) dispatch says: "A severe hail storm passed over a portion of this county during the afternoon, doing considerable damage. The strip of country damaged is about a mile wide. Hogs, chickens, and cattle were killed and crops were badly cut up.

About 5 o'clock this afternoon a heavy wind storm passed over this city without doing serious damage, but the storm was exceedingly heavy in the west.

A special to the Commonwealth, from Wichita, Kan., says hail stones fell weighing from ten to twelve ounces, thick and fast. The injury to crops is immense. Metalic roofs and glass in that vicinity were badly damaged.

Savannah, June 9.—A terrible riot took place to-day at McIntosh, a station on the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad, between a party of negro excursionists from Bryon county and those belonging to the place. It began in a fight between two negroes, whereupon John Randall, captain of a negro militia company from Bryon county, a part of the excursion, ordered his company to charge, which they did, bayoneting everybody within reach. The captain himself killed one man by running him through with his sword. The Liberty county negroes rallied and drove the military company into the cars, and opened fire on them, killing four and wounding many more, only stopping when the train got out of the way, which they tried to prevent by tearing up the track. All parties engaged were negroes.

Madrid, June 9.—The harmony of Gen. Martinez Campos' cabinet is disturbed. Gen. Martinez Campos is inclined to retire, because his policy meets resistance from a section of the conservative party. Conovers and Avala are endeavoring to maintain accord among the majority, so as to prolong the cabinet until autumn.

Chicago, June 9.—Facts have just come to light of the diamond robbery, which occurred here two weeks ago. At that time Mrs. Henry T. Murray, of 545 Wabash avenue, had a $2,000 diamond ring stolen. A young gentleman, who was a friend of the family, was suspected; but rather than injure him unjustly the matter was kept quiet. Last Saturday morning during her absence from the house her jewelry casket was rifled of its contents, being jewelry worth $1,000. Suspicion was then directed to a young woman, but no certain proof is yet at hand, and no names will now be given.

For two days the police have been busy arresting all the well known thieves in the city on the theory that the robbery of the Illinois Central railroad messenger was participated in by several persons, and that the two perpetrators were only part of a gang. Colan, one of the arrested ones, was seen in the vicinity of the corner where the daring act was committed on Saturday, and the others have been identified as the highwaymen. It is believed most of the money has been or will be found. Hanson, who carried the package of money which was stolen, has been locked up on suspicion.

Ravenna, O., June 9.—William Phillips' dwelling house at Newport, near here, was burned to-day; loss about $1,500; no insurance; origin of the fire unknown.

Lima, June 9.—The grocery house of Fredericks & Son, in this city, made an assignment this morning to William L. Porter. Their liabilities are probably $2,300; assets about $1,500; cause, stringency of the times.

Forest, O., June 9.—Last evening a team of mules valued at $200, was stolen from the stable of W. T. Hallenback, a farmer living two miles south of here. The party is supposed to have started for Michigan with them.

Versailles, June 9.—The chamber of deputies this afternoon, by a vote of 308 to 195, vetoed the prosecution by the government of Paul De Cassagnac. After the scene there was great excitement, during which Gambetta moved the expulsion of Cassagnac from the house, but he afterward withdrew the motion, De Cassagnac having withdrawn the word cowardice which he had applied to the conduct of the government.

ONE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

October 7th, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 96.3-8 per share; October 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3-4, a fluctuation of 9.3-8 percent in seven days; 12,500 shares sold on a margin of one percent, required an actual capital of $12,500. The same stock delivered at 86.3-4 gave a profit of 9.3-8 percent on the stock or $937.50 per 100 shares. On the whole 12,500 the actual profit was $117,187.50 or 9.3-8 times the capital used, in one week. This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how money is made so rabidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these, but capital in any amount from $10 to $50,000 can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and Bonds wanted. Government Bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City. 9

A WORD TO THE CORPULENT.

Instead of regarding obesity as an abnormal condition, many people have erroneously considered it as an evidence of health, and any agent that reduces fat is therefore at once suspected of being injurious. Starting to reason from the false position that fat is an evidence of health, it is not surprising that they should, very naturally, fall into the error of supposing that an agent possessing properties capable of reducing corpulency would prove injurious to the health. Reasoning, however, from the rational basis, that an undue deposition of fat, constituting obesity, is not a healthy but a morbid condition, it is quite as natural for us to arrive at the opposite conclusion, which is sustained by experience and observation, i. e., that the reduction of fat in cases of corpulency is invariably followed by an improvement of strength, spirits, and physical comports. Allan's Anti-Fat will reduce a fat person from two to five pounds a week. Sold by druggists.

THE "SENTINEL"

Has the Largest Bona Fide Circulation of Any Daily Paper in the State, outside of Indianapolis. Advertisers and Others are Invited to Call at this Office and Verify this Assertion.

Congressional Summary.

Monday, June 9.—SENATE.—The resolution to postpone the finance committee from further consideration of the Warner silver bill was laid over till to-morrow. The McDonald bill authorizing the employment of military and land and naval forces of the United States in certain cases, was taken up, and Mr. Harris spoke in support of it. HOUSE.—The appropriation committee reported back the substitute for the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill which was recommitted last week. The bill was passed. The chair appointed the following committee on the proposed impeachment of Geo. F. Seward, minister to China: Messrs. New, House, Ryan, McKinley and Williams.

THE SENTINEL has the largest circulation.

IT is stated, with much plausibility, that HAYES is laying the wires for a renomination. Of course he pledged himself to one term only, but a man who would take the presidency under the circumstances that he did, can have little regard for his pledge.

WE can assure the public that the SENTINEL has by far the largest circulation of any daily paper in the state, published outside of Indianapolis. Any one who doubts this assertion can be abundantly satisfied by calling at this office, where every facility will be afforded to advertisers and others for a thorough investigation into the facts.

CONGRESSMAN MORRISON, of Illinois, is strongly in favor of the restoration of the income tax, the proceeds to be applied to the sinking fund for the extinguishment of the public debt. There are manifold objections to this mode of taxation, as there are to every method of raising revenue yet devised by the wit of man; but for all that the income tax has many advantages. It places the burden of taxation upon those who are best able to pay it, although in many instances these parties shift the burden to other shoulders. We believe the country would be well satisfied with an income tax which would exempt all incomes of $2,000 and under. There are some difficulties in the collection of such a tax, but they have been obviated in England, and probably could be, to some extent, in this country.

THE QUININE ROBBERY.

WE have been at some pains to get from our leading druggists an estimate of the quantity of quinine used in this county per annum, and as near as can be ascertained it is 12,500 ounces. The manufacture of quinine is one of the industries that the government assumes to protect, and for this purpose its importation is practically prohibited by placing on the imported article a duty of 20 per cent of its value. This duty averages 80 cents per ounce. If the 12,500 ounces of quinine consumed in this county each year were imported, the resources of the government would be increased $10,000, and there would be some excuse for the tax; but as every ounce of quinine used in this country is manufactured by Powers & Weightman and Rosengarten & Sons of Philadelphia, the only thing accomplished by the tax is to give them an advantage of 80 cents per ounce over foreign competitors. The tax takes from the people of this county yearly $10,000 for the benefit of these two firms.

Among the many manufacturing establishments in this city, the BASS Foundry & Machine Works and N. G. OLDS & SONS' probably contribute more to its material wealth than any others, yet if the proposition was presented to the people of Allen county to appropriate from the county treasury $5,000 per year to each of them for their support and maintainance, it would be rejected by a vote of ten to one, as it should be. Wrong and unjust as it would be to tax the people of this county that the wealth of Mr. BASS and Mr. OLDS, our home manufacturers, might be increased, how much greater is the wrong when they are forced to contribute to the wealth of Philadelphia manufacturers? The quinine tax is an outrage that congress should be compelled to repeal by an indignant public sentiment; yet it is only one of the many wrongs forced upon the people by congress under the pretence of protecting home industries. It is time for the people of this country to insist on placing all industries on the same level and to protest against the taxing of one industry for the benefit of another. That the people of the United States have submitted so long to the outrages perpetrated under the name of protection is, indeed, marvellous.

Mrs. George Rose sues the city of Lafayette for $20,000 for injuries received on the streets of said city last winter, by being run into by a coasting sled, injuring her spine. The city claims that it is not liable.

One of Warren Tate's attorneys has stated that he knows of $15,000 expended by his client in defending the indictment for the murder of Wm. Love. How much more may have been spent without the knowledge of the attorneys, there is of course no means of telling.

Monticello is wild over the disappearance of N. R. McKee, a jeweler, on last Sunday. The principal conundrums are: Is he dead? Is he insane? Or has he absconded? Some curious developments are being made, but they may have been occasioned by either of the above alternatives.

A gang of thieves, believed to be a home production, went through various places in Shelby county, this state, last Monday night, stealing horses, goods and money. They were in most cases frightened away without taking their plunder, but some goods and money are missing.—Bluffton Banner.

A German living in Lancaster township, Wells county, struck his wife, a weak, sickly woman, with such force as to break one of her ribs, simply because she was unable to go with him into the fields to assist him in his farm duties.

A shooting affray, which will probably prove fatal, occurred Wednesday night at Sullivan. Isaac Draper, suspecting his wife of having improper relations with Wm. McCrary, watched the pair one night and found them walking in the streets in a very loving manner. He was very much infuriated and ran up and opened fire upon McCrary. Nine shots were exchanged, one penetrating McCrary's left breast, near the heart. The two men then fought with clubbed pistols till McCrary fell from loss of blood. He is continually spitting blood, and will, no doubt, die.

Fostoria (O.) Review: L. E. & L. Ry.—The negotiations for the sale of L. E. & L. road are about completed, and as soon as the promised local aid in Ohio and Indiana is settled the road will be placed in first-class shape, and that portion between Celina and Muncie completed as fast as men and money can complete it.

Sixty Miles an Hour.

[Kansas City Times.]

Not long since it was announced by the managers of the Chicago and Alton Railroad that they would open up with the finest trains that ever entered Kansas City, or any other, for that matter, and that they have more than made good their word will be acknowledged by all who have inspected the beautiful "palaces on wheels" which have been rolling into and out of the union depot over the tracks of the new road. To the casual observer who has gazed upon the outside of these trains, or the traveler who has ridden over it to Chicago and St. Louis, it would seem that the acme of comfort, elegance and perfection in everything had been attained, but still the restless spirit of the company does not stop with what they have accomplished. They wish to place themselves in a position to enhance their capacity for making fast time if it becomes necessary to do so. Looking to this end, the Chicago and Alton made a contract some time ago with the Schenectady Locomotive Works for several powerful and swift engines for special service on the Kansas City end of the line.

An idea of the strength and speed which are combined in these "iron horses" may be imagined when it is understood that the contract provides that these engines will haul a train equal in weight to ten of Pullman's heaviest sleeping coaches (each one of which is about as heavy as two ordinary coaches), at any rate of speed required up to sixty miles an hour. The makers of these engines were furnished with exact information as to the grades and track over which they were to perform the service, and the contract is void if they do not fill the bill in every particular. The cylinders are 18x24 inches, driving wheels five feet nine and a half inches, and immense boiler capacity. In height they stand about a foot and a half over any engine that has heretofore run into this city. The Alton people recognize in Kansas City a great and growing business center, and while they expect to largely increase their own receipts by coming here, they are proving by their acts that they intend to give the public the worth of their money. The enterprise and energy which is being displayed by the Chicago and Alton fairly sustains their brilliant prestige and justifies the best expectations of Kansas City, and is an assurance that both will go on hand in hand to prosperity and a glorious future.

OUR DAILY FOOD.

Adulteration prevails in our daily food. Food is a most important necessity, and it should be wholesome and nutritious. If all articles that are used were as pure and healthful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, we should escape many of the ills of life.

Last Night's Dispatches.

The North German Gazette publishes the text of Germany's protest against the decree of the khedive of April 22. The protest says the decree is in direct violation of international obligations. Germany must decline to consider it binding, and holds the khedive responsible for all the consequences of his illegal proceedings.

The pope has appointed Cardinal Hergenroethert keeper of the archives of the holy see.

St. Louis, May 9.—A Topeka (Kas.) dispatch says: "A severe hail storm passed over a portion of this county during the afternoon, doing considerable damage. The strip of country damaged is about a mile wide. Hogs, chickens and cattle were killed and crops were badly cut up.

About 5 o'clock this afternoon a heavy wind storm passed over this city without doing serious damage, but the storm was exceedingly heavy in the west.

A special to the Commonwealth, from Wichita, Kan., says hail stones fell weighing from ten to twelve ounces, thick and fast. The injury to crops is immense. Metalic roofs and glass in that vicinity were badly damaged.

Savannah, June 9.—A terrible riot took place to-day at McIntosh, a station on the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad, between a party of negro excursionists from Bryon county and those belonging to the place. It began in a fight between two negroes, whereupon John Randall, captain of a negro militia company from Bryon county, a part of the excursion, ordered his company to charge, which they did, bayoneting everybody within reach. The captain himself killed one man by running him through with his sword. The Liberty county negroes rallied and drove the military company into the cars, and opened fire on them, killing four and wounding many more, only stopping when the train got out of the way, which they tried to prevent by tearing up the track. All parties engaged were negroes.

Madrid, June 9.—The harmony of Gen. Martinez Campos' cabinet is disturbed. Gen. Martinez Campos is inclined to retire, because his policy meets resistance from a section of the conservative party. Conovers and Ayala are endeavoring to maintain accord among the majority, so as to prolong the cabinet until autumn.

Chicago, June 9.—Facts have just come to light of the diamond robbery, which occurred here two weeks ago. At that time Mrs. Henry T. Murray, of 545 Wabash avenue, had a $2,000 diamond ring stolen. A young gentleman, who was a friend of the family, was suspected; but rather than injure him unjustly the matter was kept quiet. Last Saturday morning during her absence from the house her jewelry casket was rifled of its contents, being jewelry worth $1,000. Suspicion was then directed to a young woman, but no certain proof is yet at hand, and no names will now be given.

For two days the police have been busy arresting all the well known thieves in the city on the theory that the robbery of the Illinois Central railroad messenger was participated in by several persons, and that the two perpetrators were only part of a gang. Colan, one of the arrested ones, was seen in the vicinity of the corner where the daring act was committed on Saturday, and the others have been identified as the highwaymen. It is believed most of the money has been or will be found. Henson, who carried the package of money which was stolen, has been locked up on suspicion.

Ravenna, O., June 9.—William Phillips' dwelling house at Newport, near here, was burned to-day; loss about $1,500; no insurance; origin of the fire unknown.

Lima, June 9.—The grocery house of Fredericks & Son, in this city, made an assignment this morning to William L. Porter. Their liabilities are probably $2,300; assets about $1,500; cause, stringency of the times.

Forest, O., June 9.—Last evening a team of mules valued at $200, was stolen from the stable of W. T. Hallenback, a farmer living two miles south of here. The party is supposed to have started for Michigan with them.

Versailles, June 9.—The chamber of deputies this afternoon, by a vote of 308 to 195, vetoed the prosecution by the government of Paul De Cassagnac. After the scene there was great excitement, during which Gambetta moved the expulsion of Cassagnac from the house, but he afterward withdrew the motion, De Cassagnac having withdrawn the word cowardice which he had applied to the conduct of the government.

ONE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

October 7th, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 96.8-8 per share; October 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3-4, a fluctuation of 9.3-8 percent in seven days; 12,500 shares sold on a margin of one percent, required an actual capital of $12,500. The same stock delivered at 86.3-4 gave a profit of 9.3-8 percent on the stock or $937.50 per 100 shares. On the whole 12,500 the actual profit was $117,187.50 or 9.3-8 times the capital used, in one week. This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how money is made so rapidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these, but capital in any amount from $10 to $50,000 can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating in stocks which Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and Bonds wanted. Government Bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City. 9

A WORD TO THE CORPULENT.

Instead of regarding obesity as an abnormal condition, many people have erroneously considered it as an evidence of health, and any agent that reduces fat is therefore at once suspected of being injurious. Starting to reason from the false position that fat is an evidence of health, it is not surprising that they should, very naturally, fall into the error of supposing that an agent possesing properties capable of reducing corpulency would prove injurious to the health. Reasoning, however, from the rational basis, that an undue deposition of fat, constituting obesity, is not a healthy but a morbid condition, it is quite as natural for us to arrive at the opposite conclusion, which is sustained by experience and observation, i. e., that the reduction of fat in cases of corpulency is invariably followed by an improvement of strength, spirits, and physical comports. Allan's Anti-Fat will reduce a fat person from two to five pounds a week. Sold by druggists.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

LINES

On the Death of Erwin Roberts.

Perhaps some day you may stand by his grave,
Sheltered only by grasses that o'er it wave,
Unmarked, unnoticed the spot will be,
Forgotten by all save heaven and thee.

There will come to you then the sad, sad truth
Of his desolate, weary, heartbroken youth,
And then, too late, you will know, my sweet,
How the poor boy loved you now dead at your feet.

At night he will come in a beautiful dream,
As oft in your dear little home you have seen,
And then again his words of love he'll repeat,
Until you two in Heaven do meet.

TIPSY TARS.

"Sing, Hey, the Jolly Sailors That They Are."

A Committee of Mariners Wait Upon His Honor the Mayor.

The United States seaboard must be in a very defenseless condition at present, almost the whole of "our navee" paying its respects to the mayor this morning. Jas. Dunbar, Wm. Dunbar and Henry McAllister were the representatives of that glorious institution who reported "here" in answer to their names. Ed. Hibbard and Abbot Pierce were also present, and were found guilty of being out of money and sentenced to leave town instanter. The way they slid out would have given O'Leary a stroke of paralysis to see. A thin streak of dust floating over the house-tops, marked their course as they waltzed down Barr street, and ere this report is written they are far beyond the pale of civilization and the jurisdiction of Pete Owens.

Wm. Dunbar was battling the raging billows on the briny railroad, when he anchored near the Broadway cemetery, and lay for a breeze. The breeze came; a great big blue breeze with brass buttons and a policeman's club. The breeze was a Guttermuth breeze, and it blew, so hard that the Wm. Dunbar parted her cable and was stranded high and dry on the Court street beach. Wm. Dunbar belongs to the U. S. S. "Plymouth" and is out on a furlough. He went south as far as the tropics on the "Kearsage" and had to put back on account of the yellow fever, and is now en route for Chicago where he has friends, relatives, and a bank account waiting for him. His nephew, James Dunbar, was also sailing under his flag. The mayor informed him that in just one hour the Fort Wayne revenue cutters would be cruising around looking for him, and if found he would be placed in a blockade port for a term of twenty-five days. The Dunbar and consort hove to, rigged an extra spar and sailed out at the rate of twenty-two knots a minute.

Henry McAllister, another sailor from the river boats, wasn't drunk, but had sore feet. Officer Myers stated:

"Last night about—— [Sailor—"I wasn't drunk"]—as I was ["I have sore feet yet"] coming up Calhoun street ["Oh, no!"] I saw this old fellow ["Burned 'em on a steam-pipe."] Marshal—"Keep still." "All right"] and he was staggering ["I'm goin' to Cincinnati." Marshal—"Well, never mind."]. I told him ["Been on steam-boat thirty years"] he must keep straight ["I only drank some ice-water"] or I would lock him ["My feet hurt!" Marshal—"Keep still,"] up. I saw him ["Oh, I never was drunk."] ——"

Mayor—"Will you keep still?"

"Eh?"

"Will you keep still now, or do you want to go to jail?"

"Yes."

Meyers—"I saw him afterward ["Never was drunk in my life"] in a worse condition ["I had sore feet; only drank ice water."] than before, and I locked him up."

Colerick—"Have you any statement to make to his honor?"

"No."

Mayor—"You haven't, eh?"

"No; I believe I'll go to Cincinnati."

"You believe you'll go to Cincinnati?"

"Yes."

"You do? Well, I believe you'll go over the canal for fifteen days; don't you?"

"No; I'll go to Cincinnati right away."

"You will? Well you'll take a state-room over the river first. Here's your mittimus, marshal. That's all."

GAILY THE TROUBADOUR.

A Pleasant Entertainment at St. Mary's Hall.

Amateur Talent Appearing to Excellent Advantage.

A respectable audience, both in point of numbers and apparent intelligence, greeted the appearance of the "Troubadours" at St. Mary's Hall last evening. A large number of young ladies were comprised in the audience. The concert was a very acceptable one, and, but for the oppressive heat, was well enjoyed by all present. The entertainment opened at 8.30 with an overture by Reineke's orchestra, of whose performance nothing need be said, after which the Troubadours—sixteen in number—gorgeous in burnt-cork and white gloves, filed in and took their places on the stage. T. J. Shelvey cracked the bones, while Billy DeWitt (?) accompanied on the tambourine. By the way, Billy DeWitt looks wonderfully like a young man of our acquaintance named Steffy, this of course is a pure coincidence. After the grand entree, Mr. F. DeWald sang the ballad, "A Flower from Mother's Grave," which was heartly applauded, and followed by a comic refrain by T. S. Shelvey. C. Rekers then sang "Breathe Again Those Sweet Words." Mr. Rekers was evidently laboring under some disadvantage, for he certainly did not do himself justice last night. Billy DeWitt then favored his audience with a comic refrain well sung and acted. J. B. Blaising followed with "Welcome Footsteps," which was well received. The whole company then participated in an excursion to Rome City, which was well performed and elicited a great deal of laughter. After another overture by the orchestra, Senator Rekers delivered his famous oration on "Woman's Right," in which he expressed himself with a profusion of Latin terms. Billy DeWitt, as Prof. KarPainter, in his wonderful performances in mesmerism and psychology was simply immense. It was a most faithful burlesque on the seances of Prof. Carpenter, and well worthy of the uproarious applause which it received. Prof. Hoengerschkatzimin-ski, then introduced his wonderful phonograph, which worked beautifully until the table was displaced, which showed the true inwardness of the "masheen" in the shape of a darkey sitting complacently on the floor ready to repeat anything spoken into the mouth of the phonograph.

After considerable trouble and a great deal of collar and cuff business, the burlesque of originating Gillmore's Band was consummated, who rendered the serenade, "The Lark," in creditable style.

They were followed by the afterpiece, a farce entitled "The Dutch Sausage Machine," the proprietors of which sacrificed themselves to the popular tastes and converted themselves into sausage.

As amateurs, the Troubadours are a success. The performance of several of them was particularly noticeable, and there is no doubt but what their next performance will meet with more marked favor in the way of attendance than did the one last night.

COOK'S CONCLUSIONS.

What He Says About the Northside Wells.

The Lane Plan of Distribution.

Before leaving the city J. D. Cook was interviewed by a SENTINEL reporter. He said that the water pumped from the wells on the north side seemed to be very pure, and was certainly agreeable to the taste. It is slightly tinctured with iron, as is all the well water in this vicinity. Whether the supply was "inexhaustible," as asserted by some, could not be so readily determined. A thorough investigation must be made into the quality, etc., of the gravel before a correct opinion could be formulated upon this subject. There was some reason to fear that the water may prove too hard for manufacturing purposes, producing incrustation of boilers, etc. Dr. Dehming, professor of chemistry at the Concordia College, is to make an analysis of this water, as well as of the water obtained from the St. Joseph River and other possible sources of supply, so that the people can move with their eyes open.

Mr. Cook seems to be well pleased with the Moses Lane plan of pipe distribution, and will recommend scarcely any changes in it.

A BAD EGG.

How George Hazzard Played It on the Rev. R. Tobey.

Roping In a Too Confiding Father-in-Law.

The notorious George Hazzard, whose operations during the past year or two have filled so large a space in the newspapers all over the country, is married to a daughter of the Rev. R. Tobey, now of Columbia City and formerly pastor of the Wayne street M. E. Church in Fort Wayne. Mr. Tobey early discovered Hazzard's dishonesty and unreliability, and long since utterly refused to have anything to do with him. It appears that shortly after Hazzard's marriage he applied to his father-in-law to endorse his note for $400. Mr. Tobey consented, and when Hazzard brought the note for his signature, Hazzard's name was written so low that Mr. Tobey could not write his name below it. He told Hazzard to fill out another note, but the latter said it made no difference which one signed the note first. Finally the worthy clergyman wrote his name on the note before Hazzard's, and the latter took the note away and tore his own name off. He then disposed of Mr. Tobey's note for $400, and the result was that that gentleman had to pay it. Hazzard was a bad egg then, and has since developed into one of the most colossal rascals Indiana ever produced.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

Interesting Dialogue Between an Inebriate and a Preacher.

An inebriate was yesterday hanging on to a lamp post, on East Columbia street, endeavoring to persuade his legs to assume a perpendicular. He was approached by one of our city divines, who saw here a good field for labor, and sought to improve the opportunity:

"My good friend, I am sorry to see you here in this sad condition. My heart bleeds in sympathy for you, poor soul."

"Hello, old pard; yer bet! Sorrer, are yer, eh? Been hyar yerself; I kin see it in yer eye. Here I am fuller'n a stuffed ostrich, an' dead broke; nary a red to git a taper, an' my gut jest a hollerin' for a sniff. Yer hearts a bleedin' eh; dead broke yerself? Yer wear good clothes; yer right yer do; an' busted, too. Yer bucked the game too long, ole man."

"No, no, my friend; you don't understand my object. Let me ask you, do you know where this will end? Do you, my friend, know where this dread course will take you? Do you know where you will go to?"

"Yer flip, ye are, old pard. Do I know where I'll go to? What 'er yer given us? Ain't I been here before? Yer bet yer boots; yer bloody right I do. The cop'll come along an' gobble me up an' away I'll sail to the Court street sewer. An' in the mornin' I'll take a walk an' see the mayor. An' the mayor'll say 'That's Jim McGinnis. Go take him out.' It's thirty days I'll get to drill in Owens's gang. Do I know where I'm goin'? I guess I know summat about it?"

"My friend, I see love's labor is lost on you. I'll leave you now, and sometime when you are in a better condition——"

"No yer don't. Ye'll shake me now, and sometime when I'm better fixed ye'll come around and give me taffy, fer me to whack up and take a bum. Ye's fly old pard ye are, but ye can't tumble me to such a racket as that. Sometime, ole man, I'll ketch you when yer off your own caboose, an' I'll pipe yer off an' see the cops gether ye in, an' the way I'll smile ud make yer sick, it would."

The reverend gentleman postponed Jim's reformation to "some more convenient day."

Worden Wouldn't.

The divorce suit of Rebecca Worden against James P. Worden came up for trial before Judge O'Rourke in the circuit court yesterday, and was decided against the petitioner. The ground on which the wife relied was failure to provide, and the feature of the case was the unexpected appearance of the defendant on the scene, who, armed with a note-book, rigorously cross-examined the wife as to the times she had received from him monies in various sums, together with articles of produce, etc. So many of these items was she obliged to admit that the case was hopelessly lost, and was decided by the court as above stated. Worden is a carpenter who has made his headquarters at the farm of Josephus S. Mason, on the Bluffton road.

A man went to the police station last night to get an order to kill a dog owned by a Mrs. Webber, residing on the corner of Fairfield avenue and Bass street, the dog having bitten a child in the neighborhood. The mayor issued an order, and Officer Trautman was detailed to despatch the dog.

DO YOU LIKE IT?

Do you like to be asked more for a thing than it is worth; that you may spend an hour or two of valuable time in beating the storekeeper down to something like the real value of the article you are purchasing?

If you do, don't trade with Foster Brothers, as they have but one price, and that is the very lowest possible cent at which the goods can be sold.

Do you want to trade with merchants who charge you one price and your neighbor another?

If you do, steer clear of Foster Brothers.

Do you want to feel after purchasing an article, upon which the dealer made two or three prices, that you probably, after all, paid more for it than it was worth?

If you do, don't trade at Foster Brothers.

Do you want to trade with stores which get highest profit they possibly can out of you?

If you do, don't trade with Foster Brothers, for they are making an earnest effort to see if goods cannot be sold at a smaller profit than ever before.

Do you want to trade with stores which mark their goods in hieroglyphies, instead of plain figures, in order that they may charge you a higher price than the goods are worth?

If you do, keep away from Foster Brothers.

But should you like to find a store that has but one price, which marks everything in plain figures, which charges you exactly what it charges your neighbor—no more and no less—which sells everything at the lowest possible cent, and sells everything on the square, so that a child can buy of them to just as good advantage as the most experienced shopper—if you want to find such a store as that, do your trading at

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT in GOLD

READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

A TORPID LIVER

is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dysentery, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver, and will with certainty relieve that important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, of itself indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

LINES

On the Death of Erwin Roberts.

Perhaps some day you may stand by his grave,
Sheltered only by grasses that o'er it wave,
Unmarked, unnoticed the spot will be,
Forgotten by all save heaven and thee.

There will come to you then the sad, sad truth
Of his desolate, weary, heartbroken youth,
And then, too late, you will know, my sweet,
How the poor boy loved you now dead at your feet.

At night he will come in a beautiful dream,
As oft in your dear little home you have seen,
And then again his words of love he'll repeat,
Until you two in Heaven do meet.

TIPSY TARS.

"Sing, Hey, the Jolly Sailors That They Are."

A Committee of Mariners Wait Upon His Honor the Mayor.

The United States seaboard must be in a very defenseless condition at present, almost the whole of "our navee" paying its respects to the mayor this morning. Jas. Dunbar, Wm. Dunbar and Henry McAllister were the representatives of that glorious institution who reported "here" in answer to their names. Ed. Hibbard and Abbot Pierce were also present, and were found guilty of being out of money and sentenced to leave town instanter. The way they slid out would have given O'Leary a stroke of paralysis to see. A thin streak of dust floating over the house-tops, marked their course as they waltzed down Barr street, and ere this report is written they are far beyond the pale of civilization and the jurisdiction of Pete Owens.

Wm. Dunbar was battling the raging billows on the briny railroad, when he anchored near the Broadway cemetery, and lay for a breeze. The breeze came; a great big blue breeze with brass buttons and a policeman's club. The breeze was a Guttermuth breeze, and it blew so hard that the Wm. Dunbar parted her cable and was stranded high and dry on the Court street beach. Wm. Dunbar belongs to the U. S. S. "Plymouth" and is out on a furlough. He went south as far as the tropics on the "Kearsage" and had to put back on account of the yellow fever, and is now en route for Chicago where he has friends, relatives, and a bank account waiting for him. His nephew, James Dunbar, was also sailing under his flag. The mayor informed him that in just one hour the Fort Wayne revenue cutters would be cruising around looking for him, and if found he would be placed in a blockade port for a term of twenty-five days. The Dunbar and consort hove to, rigged an extra spar and sailed out at the rate of twenty-two knots a minute.

Henry McAllister, another sailor from the river boats, wasn't drunk, but had sore feet. Officer Myers stated:

"Last night about—— [Sailor—"I wasn't drunk"]—as I was ["I have sore feet yet"] coming up Calhoun street ["Oh, no!"] I saw this old fellow ["Burned 'em on a steam-pipe." Marshal—"Keep still." "All right"] and he was staggering ["I'm goin' to Cincinnati." Marshal—"Well, never mind."]. I told him ["Been on steamboat thirty years"] he must keep straight ["I only drank some ice-water"] or I would lock him ["My feet hurt!" Marshal—"Keep still."] up. I saw him ["Oh, I never was drunk."] ——"

Mayor—"Will you keep still?"

"Eh?"

"Will you keep still now, or do you want to go to jail?"

"Yes."

Meyers — "I saw him afterward ["Never was drunk in my life"] in a worse condition ["I had sore feet; only drank ice water."] than before, and I locked him up."

Colerick—"Have you any statement to make to his honor?"

"No."

Mayor—"You haven't, eh?"

"No; I believe I'll go to Cincinnati."

"You believe you'll go to Cincinnati?"

"Yes."

"You do? Well, I believe you'll go over the canal for fifteen days; don't you?"

"No; I'll go to Cincinnati right away."

"You will? Well you'll take a stateroom over the river first. Here's your mittimus, marshal. That's all."

GAILY THE TROUBADOUR.

A Pleasant Entertainment at St. Mary's Hall.

Amateur Talent Appearing to Excellent Advantage.

A respectable audience, both in point of numbers and apparent intelligence, greeted the appearance of the "Troubadours" at St. Mary's Hall last evening. A large number of young ladies were comprised in the audience. The concert was a very acceptable one, and, but for the oppressive heat, was well enjoyed by all present. The entertainment opened at 8.30 with an overture by Reineke's orchestra, of whose performance nothing need be said, after which the Troubadours—sixteen in number—gorgeous in burnt-cork and white gloves, filed in and took their places on the stage. T. J. Shelvey cracked the bones, while Billy DeWitt (?) accompanied on the tambourine. By the way, Billy DeWitt looks wonderfully like a young man of our acquaintance named Steffy, this of course is a pure coincidence. After the grand entree, Mr. F. DeWald sang the ballad, "A Flower from Mother's Grave," which was heartly applauded, and followed by a comic refrain by T. S. Shelvey. C. Rekers then sang "Breathe Again Those Sweet Words." Mr. Rekers was evidently laboring under some disadvantage, for he certainly did not do himself justice last night. Billy DeWitt then favored his audience with a comic refrain well sung and acted. J. B. Blaising followed with "Welcome Footsteps," which was well received. The whole company then participated in an excursion to Rome City, which was well performed and elicited a great deal of laughter. After another overture by the orchestra, Senator Rekers delivered his famous oration on "Woman's Right," in which he expressed himself with a profusion of Latin terms. Billy DeWitt, as Prof. KarPainter, in his wonderful performances in mesmerism and psychology was simply immense. It was a most faithful burlesque on the seances of Prof. Carpenter, and well worthy of the uproarious applause which it received. Prof. Hoengerschkatziminski, then introduced his wonderful phonograph, which worked beautifully until the table was displaced, which showed the true inwardness of the "masheen" in the shape of a darkey sitting complacently on the floor ready to repeat anything spoken into the mouth of the phonograph.

After considerable trouble and a great deal of collar and cuff business, the burlesque of originating Gillmore's Band was consummated, who rendered the serenade, "The Lark," in creditable style.

They were followed by the afterpiece, a farce entitled "The Dutch Sausage Machine," the proprietors of which sacrificed themselves to the popular tastes and converted themselves into sausage.

As amateurs, the Troubadours are a success. The performance of several of them was particularly noticeable, and there is no doubt but what their next performance will meet with more marked favor in the way of attendance than did the one last night.

COOK'S CONCLUSIONS.

What He Says About the Northside Wells.

The Lane Plan of Distribution.

Before leaving the city J. D. Cook was interviewed by a SENTINEL reporter. He said that the water pumped from the wells on the north side seemed to be very pure, and was certainly agreeable to the taste. It is slightly tinctured with iron, as is all the well water in this vicinity. Whether the supply was "inexhaustible," as asserted by some, could not be so readily determined. A thorough investigation must be made into the quality, etc., of the gravel before a correct opinion could be formulated upon this subject. There was some reason to fear that the water may prove too hard for manufacturing purposes, producing incrustation of boilers, etc. Dr. Dehming, professor of chemistry at the Concordia College, is to make an analysis of this water, as well as of the water obtained from the St. Joseph River and other possible sources of supply, so that the people can move with their eyes open.

Mr. Cook seems to be well pleased with the Moses Lane plan of pipe distribution, and will recommend scarcely any changes in it.

A BAD EGG.

How George Hazzard Played It on the Rev. R. Tobey.

Roping In a Too Confiding Father-in-Law.

The notorious George Hazzard, whose operations during the past year or two have filled so large a space in the newspapers all over the country, is married to a daughter of the Rev. R. Tobey, now of Columbia City and formerly pastor of the Wayne street M. E. Church in Fort Wayne. Mr. Tobey early discovered Hazzard's dishonesty and unreliability, and long since utterly refused to have anything to do with him. It appears that shortly after Hazzard's marriage he applied to his father-in-law to endorse his note for $400. Mr. Tobey consented, and when Hazzard brought the note for his signature, Hazzard's name was written so low that Mr. Tobey could not write his name below it. He told Hazzard to fill out another note, but the latter said it made no difference which one signed the note first. Finally the worthy clergyman wrote his name on the note before Hazzard's, and the latter took the note away and tore his own name off. He then disposed of Mr. Tobey's note for $400, and the result was that that gentleman had to pay it. Hazzard was a bad egg then, and has since developed into one of the most colossal rascals Indiana ever produced.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

Interesting Dialogue Between an Inebriate and a Preacher.

An inebriate was yesterday hanging on to a lamp post, on East Columbia street, endeavoring to persuade his legs to assume a perpendicular. He was approached by one of our city divines, who saw here a good field for labor, and sought to improve the opportunity:

"My good friend, I am sorry to see you here in this sad condition. My heart bleeds in sympathy for you, poor soul."

"Hello, old pard; yer bet! Sorrer, are yer, eh? Been hyar yerself; I kin see it in yer eye. Here I am fuller'n a stuffed ostrich, an' dead broke; nary a red to git a taper, an' my gut jest a hollerin' for a sniff. Yer hearts a bleedin' eh; dead broke yerself? Yer wear good clothes; yer right yer do; an' busted, too. Yer bucked the game too long, ole man."

"No, no, my friend; you don't understand my object. Let me ask you, do you know where this will end? Do you, my friend, know where this dread course will take you? Do you know where you will go to?"

"Yer flip, ye are, old pard. Do I know where I'll go to? What 'er yer given us? Ain't I been here before? Yer bet yer boots; yer bloody right I do. The cop'll come along an' gobble me up an' away I'll sail to the Court street sewer. An' in the mornin' I'll take a walk an' see the mayor. An' the mayor'll say 'That's Jim McGinnis. Go take him out.' It's thirty days I'll get to drill in Owens's gang. Do I know where I'm goin'? I guess I know summat about it?"

"My friend, I see love's labor is lost on you. I'll leave you now, and sometime when you are in a better condition——"

"No yer don't. Ye'll shake me now, and sometime when I'm better fixed ye'll come around and give me taffy, fer me to whack up and take a bum. Ye's fly old pard ye are, but ye can't tumble me to such a racket as that. Sometime, ole man, I'll ketch you when yer off your own caboose, an' I'll pipe yer off an' see the cops gether ye in, an' the way I'll smile ud make yer sick, it would."

The reverend gentleman postponed Jim's reformation to "some more convenient day."

Worden Wouldn't.

The divorce suit of Rebecca Worden against James P. Worden came up for trial before Judge O'Rourke in the circuit court yesterday, and was decided against the petitioner. The ground on which the wife relied was failure to provide, and the feature of the case was the unexpected appearance of the defendant on the scene, who, armed with a note-book, rigorously cross-examined the wife as to the times she had received from him monies in various sums, together with articles of produce, etc. So many of these items was she obliged to admit that the case was hopelessly lost, and was decided by the court as above stated. Worden is a carpenter who has made his headquarters at the farm of Josephus S. Mason, on the Bluffton road.

A man went to the police station last night to get an order to kill a dog owned by a Mrs. Webber, residing on the corner of Fairfield avenue and Bass street, the dog having bitten a child in the neighborhood. The mayor issued an order, and Officer Trautman was detailed to despatch the dorg.

Old papers for sale at the SENTINEL office.

DO YOU LIKE IT?

Do you like to be asked more for a thing than it is worth, that you may spend an hour or two of valuable time in beating the storekeeper down to something like the real value of the article you are purchasing?

If you do, don't trade with Foster Brothers, as they have but one price, and that is the very lowest possible cent at which the goods can be sold.

Do you want to trade with merchants who charge you one price and your neighbor another?

If you do, steer clear of Foster Brothers.

Do you want to feel after purchasing an article, upon which the dealer made two or three prices, that you probably, after all, paid more for it than it was worth?

If you do, don't trade at Foster Brothers.

Do you want to trade with stores which get highest profit they possibly can out of you?

If you do, don't trade with Foster Brothers, for they are making an earnest effort to see if goods cannot be sold at a smaller profit than ever before.

Do you want to trade with stores which mark their goods in hieroglyphies, instead of plain figures, in order that they may charge you a higher price than the goods are worth?

If you do, keep away from Foster Brothers.

But should you like to find a store that has but one price, which marks everything in plain figures, which charges you exactly what it charges your neighbor—no more and no less—which sells everything at the lowest possible cent, and sells everything on the square, so that a child can buy of them to just as good advantage as the most experienced shopper—if you want to find such a store as that, do your trading at

"THE NEW SILVER BILL."

General Bill 2,339.—"An act to establish the shortest, quickest and most direct route from all points in the east to the Great Gold and Silver Mines of Colorado."

Be it enacted by the People of the United States, that they shall travel only by the route offering the least changes of cars, surest connections, with all the latest improvements for the comfort and convenience of the traveling public, between the East and the Great West.

The press and the people all unite in pronouncing the "Old and Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad the only line which can offer these inducements.

They are the only line running through day coaches and Pullman Palace Sleepers between Toledo (O.) via Defiance, Fort Wayne, Peru, Logansport, Lafayette, Danville, Tolono, Decatur, Springfield, Jacksonville and Quincy to the Missouri River without change. The only line running day coaches between Indianapolis and the Missouri River via Danville Junction and Quincy without change, and a daily line, line of Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, and the celebrated Horton Reclining Chair Cars between Chicago via Aurora, Mendota, Galesburg and Quincy to Kansas City without change, making sure and close connections for all points in Kansas, Nebraska and the Gold Fields of Colorado. ROAMING ROBBERS.

The Burglars Raising Old Harry in South Wayne.

Startling Discovery in Mrs. C. D. Bond's Residence.

About 4.30 this morning, the inmates of Mrs. Chas. D. Bond's mansion in South Wayne, were aroused by a succession of piercing shrieks, which rang out upon the night air with fearful distinctness. They hastened towards Mrs. B.'s chamber, from which the sounds emanated, and found that Mrs. Bond had awakened and discovered a burglar in her room, when she had and pursued the unwelcome visitor as far as the hall door.

Chas. E. Bond, her son, who was awakened by her scream, saw two figures rapidly retreating down the stairs, one of them holding a candle in his hand. He followed them, when they quickened their pace and as Mr. Bond gained upon them he heard a click, as if of a "pop." He thereupon returned to his room and obtained his revolver. He looked out of his window and saw two men stealing rapidly away over the lawn. Mr. Bond fired two shots at them, which unfortunately did not take effect, and they soon disappeared in the darkness.

Mrs. Bond stated that at the hour mentioned she found herself awake and saw a man standing in the door holding a candle in his hand. She called "Who's There?" and received no answer. The object remained motionless and Mrs. B., called again, "Who's There?" The figure moved slightly and the candle flickered. Thereupon, being nearly beside herself with fright, she uttered the piercing shrieks which woke up the entire household, and speedily brought her sons to her relief. She who hastily retreated down stairs, still carrying the candle in his hand. He let himself and his pal out the door without stopping to say farewell.

Upon investigation it was found that an entrance had been made into a portion of the basement in the south-east corner of the house, used as a store room. One of the basement windows had been closed and sodded over, and the burglars had removed the sod and opened the window. They had unscrewed the lock on the door leading to the upper portion of the house, after which they had found smooth sailing, all the inside doors being unlocked.

It appears that they had invaded the rooms of Chas. and Stephen Bond and thoroughly ransacked their clothing, but had taken nothing except a knife and some small change from the former's pockets. Stephen's clothing was found in the hall. From Miss Bond's room a necklace and a pair of bracelets were taken. The entire value of the booty secured was not over $25, although the rascals passed through a room containing the plate and other articles of great value.

The thieves visited the house of S. B. Bond, took a little change out of his pocket and 25 cents from the pocket of one of his sons.

in Mr. Bond's trousers, which they can obtain by calling at the bank.

G. E. Bursley's residence, directly opposite, was thoroughly ransacked, but nothing was missed this morning.

An entrance was also effected into the residence of J. M. Barrett, but nothing of value taken.

This morning J. B. Hill found an empty pocket book near the Creighton avenue street car depot, which is believed to have been the one taken from S. B. Bond's house.

Several visits have been made by burglars to the Bond residences, but the results have never proved profitable.

BREVITIES.

The new fee bill has taken effect.

Judge Morris has returned from Jackson.

The huckleberry crop promises to be large.

A meeting was called for last evening for the purpose of reorganizing the Schutzenverein, but the attendance was so small that the meeting was postponed.

It is proposed to have a band of music at Swinney Park two evenings a week, with beer and cigars on tap, so that gentlemen can speed their driving horses on the track.

Nelson R. McKee, a jeweler of Monticello, Ind., has been missing since the 31st of May. It is supposed that he has either been murdered or killed accidentally, as no clue to him could be found. Mr. Mckee was born in Eel River township, this county, and resided here for many years. He was a brother of Thomas McKee, of the Goshen road, and an uncle of Mrs. Frank Alderman of this city.

Uncle Peter Kiser has on exhibition at his store a gigantic specimen "blunderbuss" which on the old wooden stock has the number "1500" inscribed. Uncle Peter insists that the blunderbuss was used by St. Patrick in his memorable massacree of snakes, toads and frogs, and says that John Hamilton and George Humphrey brought it over when they came from Ireland. Uncle Peter is a little mixed on his dates, but the story is a very good one for all that.

The Boss Detective.

Bill Blakely, that gentlemanly conductor of the Lima accommodation, is a man not to be fooled with. A few days ago Cond. Long had an overcoat stolen from him. He told Blakely about the matter. Blakely knew the overcoat, and yesterday as his train was pulling out of Middlepoint, O., he saw and recognized the overcoat on the back of a party walking along the street. Bill immediately jerked the bell cord and backed up his train. He got off and accosted the fellow with "Here, You!" The fellow paid no attention to the hail, and Bill trotted up to him and grabbed his shoulder with a grip that would have collapsed a gaspipe. He said:

"Here, want to see you. Where did you get that overcoat?"

"A fellow gave it to me."

"That's too thin; you stole it. I know that coat."

"No, sir; but you can have it," and he hauled it off and handed it over to Bill.

"That's all right," said Bill," but I want you too," and he marched the gentleman back and handed him over to the authorities.

Blakely, as a detective, is immense.

A JOLLY BAND.

The Arion Society and Sængerbund Off for Cincinnati.

Presentation to Prof. Wellenstein.

PRESENTATION.

Prof. Wellenstein was last night presented with a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, by the Arion and Sængerbund societies, as a token of their esteem for his continued faithful services in their behalf. Capt. Hettler made the presentation speech.

THE EXCURSION.

The Cincinnati excursion to be given by the Arion and Sængerbund societies to-night, has the promise of being the affair of the season. The excursionists will leave the south depot at 10 p. m. A band of music will be in attendance. About 400 tickets will probably be sold from here and about 100 from Decatur. On Saturday a convention of delegates will be held for the purpose of appointing a place for the next annual concert, and on Sunday a grand picnic will be held under the auspices of the united societies. The excursionists expect to return Monday night. Upon the arrival of the train in Cincinnati a band of music will be in attendance to escort the excursionists to headquarters, where a free breakfast will be served. Altogether it is expected to be a successful affair. About forty Fort Wayne singers will participate in the grand chorus.

THE RAILROADS.

Freights on the Wabash are picking up.

Business brisk on the P., F. W. & C. R. R.

A band will be in attendance at the south depot to-night.

The Wabash has discontinued some of its telegraph offices.

Master of transportation Walton, went to Chicago on No. 1 to-day.

An emigrant train of ten cars will go west on the Pittsburgh road to-morrow.

Roadmaster Learmarth goes to Chicago on a special train this evening at 8 o'clock.

Great preparations are being made to give the Chicago Commercial Club a "big run" to-morrow.

J. D. Layng and C. D. Gorham will go to Chicago on a special train at 7 o'clock a. m. to-morrow.

Eighty-five excursioners lent their $2.50 to the Home for the Friendless enterprise this morning. Quite a number came in over the Saginaw road to join the excursion.

Engine 218, handled by Tom Telley, will pull the Chicago Commercial Club from Chicago to Fort Wayne, and engine 138, with Mart Burt at the throttle, will steer them to Crestline.

C. E. Gorham passed through this city this morning on No. 4 to meet J. D. Layng at Crestline, O., to make the monthly trip of inspection over the road. They left Crestline at 2.30 this afternoon, accompanied by Supt. C. D. Gorham, Chief Engineer Statnper, C. D. Law, J. W. Clark and other officers of the road.

THE COURTS.

CRIMINAL.

In the case of George Morgan a motion to take the depositions of witnesses living in Columbus, O., was sustained, and the trial set for the first Monday in July.

A motion was made to quash in each of John Leichner's indictments.

Samuel C. Woodruff, the man who fell from P. S. O'Rourke's building Saturday, died Sunday morning at 9 o'clock from the effect of his internal injuries. He was buried Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lindenwood.

A Hot Summer Predicted.

An unusually warm summer is predicted by Prof. Piazzi Smith, the astronomer royal for Scotland. He bases his predictions on the records of the temperature of Edinburg as registered during the last forty years by the earth thermometer of the observatory of that city. These observations show, he says, that a great heat wave comes upon the earth without presumably from the sun, about every eleven years; and it appears that the next wave may be expected in the summer of this year. Prof. Smith thinks these seasons are likely to be glowing hot, and the following winter exceptionally mild.

The latest "slang" of "culchaw" and philosophy is "perspective." It is a big thing. If you are speaking of Tennyson, say that his perspective is very fine. If you are speaking of Beaconsfield, remark, "Aw, yass; his pawspactive is very fawine." If a Beethovan sonata is played exclaim, "Oh, my, though, isn't his darling perspective so fine?" If you are drinking a schooner of sherry cobbler say, "Darn fine perspective, Bill, isn't it?"—New York Herald.

Chinese Cheap Labor.

A young Chinaman has been ordained a deacon in California. That settles the whole business—the Chinese must go. This country could stand Chinese labor for digging canals at twenty-five cents per day, or blasting rock for one cent a yard, but when the Chinaman goes rooting around the foundation of our free institutions and crawls around on deacon's chairs and such things, then it is time he departed. A good square deacon should make about $800 a year out of his office, and this cussed Chinaman will probably reduce rates to a bamboo cane and two dead rats and give a receipt in full for 365 days. Shall we stand idly by and see our rights and franchises thus rudely trampled upon? No, the Chinese must go.

Connubial Devotion.

Riding on a railroad car:

Husband—You are quite comfortable, dear?

Wife—Yes, love.

Husband—The cushions are easy and soft, ducky?

Wife—Yes, darling.

Husband—You don't feel any jolts, pet?

Wife—No, sweetest.

Husband—And there is no draught on my lamb, is there, angel?

Wife—No, my owness own.

Husband—Then change seats with me!

IT WILL PAY YOU —TO— Read This CAREFULLY.

"THE NEW SILVER BILL."

General Bill 9,399.—"An act to establish the shortest, quickest and most direct route from all points in the east to the Great Gold and Silver Mines of Colorado."

Be it enacted by the People of the United States, that they shall travel only by the route offering the least changes of cars, surest connections, with all the latest improvements for the comfort and convenience of the traveling public, between the East and the Great West.

The press and the people all unite in pronouncing the "Old and Reliable" Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad the only line which can offer these inducements.

They are the only line running through day coaches and Pullman Palace Sleepers between Toledo (O.) via Defiance, Fort Wayne, Peru, Logansport, Lafayette, Danville, Tolono, Decatur, Springfield, Jacksonville and Quincy to the Missouri River without change. The only line running day coaches between Indianapolis and the Missouri River via Danville Junction and Quincy without change, and a daily line of Pullman Palace Sleeping Cars, and the celebrated Horton Reclining Chair Cars between Chicago via Aurora, Mendota, Galesburg and Quincy to Kansas City without change, making sure and close connections for all points in Kansas, Nebraska and the Gold Fields of Colorado. Our rates to Leadville and other points in Colorado and the Great West are always as cheap as by any other line.

ROAMING ROBBERS.

The Burglars Raising Old Harry in South Wayne.

Startling Discovery in Mrs. C. D. Bond's Residence.

About 4.30 this morning, the inmates of Mrs. Chas. D. Bond's mansion in South Wayne, were aroused by a succession of piercing shrieks, which rang out upon the night air with fearful distinctness. They hastened towards Mrs. B.'s chamber, from which the sounds emnated, and found that Mrs. Bond had awakened and discovered a burglar in her room, when she had and pursed the unwelcome visitor as far as the hall door.

Chas. E. Bond, her son, who was awakened by her scream, saw two figures rapidly retreating down the stairs, one of them holding a candle in his hand. He followed them, when they quickened their pace and as Mr. Bond gained upon them he heard a click, as if of a "pop." He thereupon returned to his room and obtained his revolver. He looked out of his window and saw two men stealing rapidly away over the lawn. Mr. Bond fired two shots at them, which unfortudately did not take effect, and they soon disappeared in the darkness.

Mrs. Bond stated that at the hour mentioned she found herself awake and saw a man standing in the door holding a candle in his hand. She called "Who's There?" and received no answer. The object remained motionless and Mrs. B., called again, "Who's There?" The figure moved slightly and the candle flickered. Thereupon, being nearly beside herself with fright, she uttered the piercing shrieks which woke up the entire household, and speedily brought her sons to her relief. She who hastily retreated down stairs, still carrying the candle in his hand. He let himself and his pal out the door without stopping to say farewell.

Upon investigation it was found that an entrance had been made into a portion of the basement in the south-east corner of the house, used as a store room. One of the basement windows had been closed and sodded over, and the burglars had removed the sod and opened the window. They had unscrewed the lock on the door leading to the upper portion of the house, after which they had found smooth sailing, all the inside doors being unlocked.

It appears that they had invaded the rooms of Chas. and Stephen Bond and thoroughly ransacked their clothing, but had taken nothing except a knife and some small change from the former's pockets. Stephen's clothing was found in the hall. From Miss Bond's room a necklace and a pair of bracelets were taken. The entire value of the booty secured was not over $25, although the rascals passed through a room containing the plate and other articles of great value.

The thieves visited the house of S. B. Bond, took a little change out of his pocket and 25 cents from the pocket of one of his sons.

in Mr. Bond's trousers, which they can obtain by calling at the bank.

G. E. Bursley's residence, directly opposite, was thoroughly ransacked, but nothing was missed this morning.

An entrance was also effected into the residence of J. M. Barrett, but nothing of value taken.

This morning J. B. Hill found an empty pocket book near the Creighton avenue street car depot, which is believed to have been the one taken from S. B. Bond's house.

Several visits have been made by burglars to the Bond residences, but the results have never proved profitable.

BREVITIES.

The new fee bill has taken effect.

Judge Morris has returned from Jackson.

The huckleberry crop promises to be large.

A meeting was called for last evening for the purpose of reorganizing the Schutzenverein, but the attendance was so small that the meeting was postponed.

It is proposed to have a band of music at Swinney Park two evenings a week, with beer and cigars on tap, so that gentlemen can speed their driving horses on the track.

Nelson R. McKee, a jeweler of Monticello, Ind., has been missing since the 31st of May. It is supposed that he has either been murdered or killed accidentally, as no clue to him could be found. Mr. Mckee was born in Eel River township, this county, and resided here for many years. He was a brother of Thomas McKee, of the Goshen road, and an uncle of Mrs. Frank Alderman of this city.

Uncle Peter Kiser has on exhibition at his store a gigantic specimen "blunderbuss" which on the old wooden stock has the number "1500" inscribed. Uncle Peter insists that the blunderbuss was used by St. Patrick in his memorable massacree of snakes, toads and frogs, and says that John Hamilton and George Humphrey brought it over when they came from Ireland. Uncle Peter is a little mixed on his dates, but the story is a very good one for all that.

The Boss Detective.

Bill Blakely, that gentlemanly conductor of the Lima accommodation, is a man not to be fooled with. A few days ago Cond. Long had an overcoat stolen from him. He told Blakely about the matter. Blakely knew the overcoat, and yesterday as his train was pulling out of Middlepoint, O., he saw and recognized the overcoat on the back of a party walking along the street. Bill immediately jerked the bell cord and backed up his train. He got off and accosted the fellow with "Here, You!" The fellow paid no attention to the hail, and Bill trotted up to him and grabbed his shoulder with a grip that would have collapsed a gaspipe. He said:

"Here, want to see you. Where did you get that overcoat?"

"A fellow gave it to me."

"That's too thin; you stole it. I know that coat."

"No, sir; but you can have it," and he hauled it off and handed it over to Bill.

"That's all right," said Bill," but I want you too," and he marched the gentleman back and handed him over to the authorities.

Blakely, as a detective, is immense.

A JOLLY BAND.

The Arion Society and Sængerbund Off for Cincinnati.

Presentation to Prof. Wellenstein.

PRESENTATION.

Prof. Wellenstein was last night presented with a pair of gold rimmed spectacles, by the Arion and Sængerbund societies, as a token of their esteem for his continued faithful services in their behalf. Capt. Hettler made the presentation speech.

THE EXCURSION.

The Cincinnati excursion to be given by the Arion and Sængerbund societies to-night, has the promise of being the affair of the season. The excursionists will leave the south depot at 10 p. m. A band of music will be in attendance. About 400 tickets will probably be sold from here and about 100 from Decatur. On Saturday a convention of delegates will be held for the purpose of appointing a place for the next annual concert, and on Sunday a grand picnic will be held under the auspices of the united societies. The excursionists expect to return Monday night. Upon the arrival of the train in Cincinnati a band of music will be in attendance to escort the excursionists to headquarters, where a free breakfast will be served. Altogether it is expected to be a successful affair. About forty Fort Wayne singers will participate in the grand chorus.

THE RAILROADS.

Freights on the Wabash are picking up.

Business brisk on the P., F. W. & C. R. R.

A band will be in attendance at the south depot to-night.

The Wabash has discontinued some of its telegraph offices.

Master of transportation Walton, went to Chicago on No. 1 to-day.

An emigrant train of ten cars will go west on the Pittsburgh road to-morrow.

Roadmaster Learmauth goes to Chicago on a special train this evening at 8 o'clock.

Great preparations are being made to give the Chicago Commercial Club a "big run" to-morrow.

J. D. Layng and C. D. Gorham will go to Chicago on a special train at 7 o'clock a. m. to-morrow.

Eighty-five excursioners lent their $2.50 to the Home for the Friendless enterprise this morning. Quite a number came in over the Saginaw road to join the excursion.

Engine 218, handled by Tom Telley, will pull the Chicago Commercial Club from Chicago to Fort Wayne, and engine 138, with Mart Burt at the throttle, will steer them to Crestline.

C. E. Gorham passed through this city this morning on No. 4 to meet J. D. Layng at Crestline, O., to make the monthly trip of inspection over the road. They left Crestline at 2.30 this afternoon, accompanied by Supt. C. D. Gorham, Chief Engineer Stataper, C. D. Law, J. W. Clark and other officers of the road.

THE COURTS.

CRIMINAL.

In the case of George Morgan a motion to take the depositions of witnesses living in Columbus, O., was sustained, and the trial set for the first Monday in July.

A motion was made to quash in each of John Leichner's indictments.

Samuel C. Woodruff, the man who fell from P. S. O'Rourke's building Saturday, died Sunday morning at 9 o'clock from the effect of his internal injuries. He was buried Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lindenwood.

A Hot Summer Predicted.

An unusually warm summer is predicted by Prof. Piazzi Smith, the astronomer royal for Scotland. He bases his predictions on the records of the temperature of Edinburg as registered during the last forty years by the earth thermometer of the observatory of that city. These observations show, he says, that a great heat wave comes upon the earth without presumably from the sun, about every eleven years; and it appears that the next wave may be expected in the summer of this year. Prof. Smith thinks these seasons are likely to be glowing hot, and the following winter exceptionally mild.

The latest "slang" of "culchaw" and philosophy is "perspective." It is a big thing. If you are speaking of Tennyson, say that his perspective is very fine. If you are speaking of Beaconsfield, remark, "Aw, yass; his pawspective is very fawine." If a Beethovan sonata is played exclaim, "Oh, my, though, isn't his darling perspective so fine?" If you are drinking a schooner of sherry cobbler say, "Darn fine perspective, Bill, isn't it?"—New York Herald.

Chinese Cheap Labor.

A young Chinaman has been ordained a deacon in California. That settles the whole business—the Chinese must go. This country could stand Chinese labor for digging canals at twenty-five cents per day, or blasting rock for one cent a yard, but when the Chinaman goes rooting around the foundation of our free institutions and crawls around on deacon's chairs and such things, then it is time he departed. A good square deacon should make about $800 a year out of his office, and this cussed Chinaman will probably reduce rates to a bamboo cane and two dead rats and give a receipt in full for 365 days. Shall we stand idly by and see our rights and franchises thus rudely trampled upon? No, the Chinese must go.

Connubial Devotion.

Riding on a railroad car:

Husband—You are quite comfortable, dear?

Wife—Yes, love.

Husband—The cushions are easy and soft, ducky?

Wife—Yes, darling.

Husband—You don't feel any jolts, pet?

Wife—No, sweetest.

Husband—And there is no daught on my lamb, is there, angel?

Wife—No, my ownest own.

Husband—Then change seats with me!

IT WILL PAY YOU —TO— Read This CAREFULLY.
